

IT'S ALL ABOUT...

Giving back; making an impact...

“Contributing to AHLA’s Public Interest fund provides the opportunity to use the experience and expertise of our members to give back to the community.”

–Elisabeth Belmont, Corporate Counsel, Maine Health, Portland, ME

Donating to AHLA Public Interest provides health care lawyers and their clients, health professionals, and their communities with valuable resources. Visit www.healthlawyers.org/publicinterest and find the tools to make an impact.

Advance the public’s interest: www.healthlawyers.org/donate

IT'S ALL ABOUT...

Giving

“When you donate you are contributing to the resolution of some of our Nation’s most important issues.”

–Peter Pavarini, Partner,
Squire Patton Boggs, Columbus, OH

IT'S ALL ABOUT...

Sharing

“Health lawyers as a focused profession have so much to offer the system that we serve, that it seems only appropriate to provide the funds to help share those talents with a struggling American health care system.”

–William “Bill” A. Kindorf, Partner,
Huck Bolema PC, Wheaton, IL

IT'S ALL ABOUT...

Improving our communities

“I donate because so many of the issues we face in health law really are public interest problems.”

–Jeff Sconyers, Senior Lecturer,
Graduate Program in Health
Services Administration, University of Washington, Seattle, WA

IT'S ALL ABOUT...

Providing free resources

“We should support the use of our talented and knowledgeable membership as a resource to advance the dialogue on various public health concerns facing our country and our world.”

–Marci Handler, Senior Counsel,
Kaiser Foundation Health Plan Inc,
Rockville, MD